VAN MAHOTSAY

“The main aim of this Mahotsav is to create enthusiasm and awareness amongst the masses. During this festival, each and every citizen of India is expected to plant a sapling during the entire Van Mahotsav week and pass it on to the next generation.”

Van Mahotsav or Forest Festival is an annual tree-planting festival celebrated in the month of July in which thousands of trees are planted all over the country. Van Mahotsav week is celebrated from 1 July to 7 July to spread awareness of forest conservation and to save the environment. Van Mahotsav week is celebrated in the first week of July and plantation drives are carried out across the country. India has taken a target of creating additional 2 billion carbon sequestration by 2030. On Van Mahotsav, people plant saplings and encourage more people and various plantation drives are also carried out.

To contribute in this noble cause GGDSD College, Haryana NCC UNIT and other students with staff members in collaboration with Forest Department participated actively in this events and plant number of trees.

NATIONAL UNITY DAY

“ The Union Ministry of Home Affairs announced in 2014 that National Unity Day will be observed on Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's birth anniversary 31st October to recognise his contribution to India's Independence and unity”.

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel rigorously promoted the idea of unity at a time when India was split into princely states and British India. Therefore, National Unity Day is observed to honour Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel's efforts to unify the nation. This day is significant for the reasons, “Its goal is to reassert Indians' shared togetherness. It wants to keep the people united despite their differences. National Unity Day serves as a reminder to Indian citizens of the struggles and sacrifices Sardar Patel and other activists made to bring India together.”

GGSD College, Haryana NCC UNIT and other students with staff members participated actively in this events marching on roads with placards carrying messages of “UNITY” for all.
